CONVENTION CALLED.

Republicans to Choose Standard Bearer at Early Date.

Campaign Committee Composed of County's Best Republicans Chosen.

The Republican County Executive Committee met here last Saturday pursuant to regular call. The meeting was well attended, there being only a few members absent and quite a good deal of interest was manifested in the matters discussed and the business transacted. Among the most important matter that the committee considered was the calling of a convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county offices to be elected next fall. The question as to time and manner of selecting the candidate was discussed at some length by several of the members of the committee. It was finally decided by a unanimous vote of the committee that precinct conventions be held in the various precincts of the county Saturday November 26, at which time delegates will be selected to meet at Hartford Monday November 28 for the purpose of naming the candidates.

A campaign committee composed of seven of the county's best Republicans was unanimously chosen by the committee. They are: T. H. Black, Chairman, John G. Keown, Secretary, J. D. Taylor, Dr. G. F. Chapman, U. G. Ragland, John Blair and Ike C. Adair.

The various attractions at the Ohio County Fair this year, besides the big Premium List, are intended to make it the very best fair ever held here.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Stringent rules were adopted by the Kentucky State Board of Health Wednesday requiring all physicians coming from other States to take an examination before practicing in Kentucky; limiting medical colleges to cities of 50,000 population or over; prohibiting any medical college from having more than one school term a year, and requiring all students who intend to enter medical college to take a preliminary examination.

After a five hours' public session at the Galt House, Louisville, Monday afternoon, the Republican State Central Committee met in executive session that night and declared that the certificate of nomination issued to Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter as nominee for Congress from the Eleventh District was not given by a quorum of the District Committee and that the result of the primary election of August 9 has not yet been determined.

St. Louis Exposition attendance was broken Tuesday, when 207,454 persons passed through the pay gates.

Forty thousand people are engaged in the work of harvesting hops in Oregon.

Call for Convention.

At a regular meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of Ohio county, held at Hartford, Ky., Saturday, September 3, 1904, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a delegated convention be held in the town of Hartford, Ky., on Monday, November 28, 1904, at 1 o'clock p. m. at the court house in said town for purpose of nominating candidates for the various county officers to be voted for at the November election, 1905, viz: Representative, county judge, county court clerk, county attorney, sheriff, jailer, superintendent of schools, coroner, surveyor and assessor, and that precinct conventions be held in each of the voting precincts in said county on November 26, 1904, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend said county convention on November 28 and that the representation therein be 1 delegate for every 25 votes or fraction over 12 votes cast for President Roosevelt on November 8, 1904, and the candidate receiving a majority of the votes cast in said county convention shall be declared the nominee of the Republican party for said office.

WOMAN TO PILOT BOAT.

Miss Kennedy Files Application at Evansville to Operate in Green River.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 6.—The first woman to make application for a license as master and pilot of a steamboat before the local steamboat inspectors is Miss Vera Mae Kennedy, daughter of Capt. F. L. Kennedy, owner of the towboats City of Idaho and Lotus. These boats are engaged in the tie business between this city and Green river. Capt. Kennedy is on the Lotus, while his daughter is on the City of Idaho. Miss Kennedy is a beautiful girl and has just passed her twenty-first birthday. She has had four years' continuous service on Western waters and is thoroughly acquainted with the upper Mississippi river, Black, White and Arkansas rivers. The Lotus is registered at Rock Island and the Idaho at Memphis, but they will be transferred to Evansville. The family of Capt. Kennedy reside at Bowling Green, Ky.

Over $2,000 will be given away in Premiums at the Ohio County Fair this year. See a catalogue.

DEATH PENALTY APPLAUD.

Cheers go up When Sentence is Read by the Clerk.

Prisoner Sits Unconcerned When he Learns He Must Die For Murder of Coomes.

For the second time in four days and the fourth time in the history of Daviess county the death penalty was returned by a jury in Daviess Circuit court last Saturday morning.

For a crime so atrocious that nothing in the history of Daviess county approached it, Roy Green will hang on the gallows. He was found guilty of the murder of James Coomes of Slaughterville at 8:30 Saturday morning by the jury and given the extreme penalty.

Green's trial was commenced on Wednesday morning following close on the heels of the death verdict for Robert Mathley given on that day. The jury did not consider the case until 8:15 o'clock Saturday morning. One ballot was taken in the jury room. And after twenty-five minutes deliberation the verdict was brought in the court room.

During this trying ordeal Roy Green sat unmoved, but with a look on his face of anxiety as to what the clerk would read from the slip of paper in his hand.

When the verdict inflicting the death penalty was read Roy was leaning slightly forward in his chair. He never changed expression, but slowly leaned back in his chair.

As soon as the verdict was announced, the 500 or 600 people in the court-room rose and cheered and waved hats as if they had been in attendance at a political jollification.

On Monday, August 1, Geo. White and Joe Chamberlain discovered the body of an unknown white man in an eating stand at the fair grounds. The body was that of a young man of fine physique, apparently not over 35 years of age. It was in a state of mutilation almost beyond human conception.

A huge splinter, nearly three feet long, had been driven through his throat and into the ground several inches and the end of it, in which was a nail, pushed over to the side of the wall and forced into a crack. His skull had been crushed and his face mashed and beaten into a pulp, his broad chest almost blue from blows. The body was moved to an undertaker's establishment and was not identified as that of James Coomes, of Webster county, until the following day.

It is for the murder of this man that Roy Green must suffer the severest penalty known to the law.

The Ohio County Fair will be the biggest Fair of all Fairs this year.

ROCKPORT.

Sept. 7.—Mrs. Wm. Coleman living in the Hopewell neighborhood but who has been visiting a daughter in Daviess county, died at that place last Thursday. Her remains were brought here Friday and taken to Hopewell where they were interred in the Hopewell cemetery.

The new lodge hall and opera house at McHenry is nearing completion and when it is finished it will be the largest and handsomest building in McHenry. The opera which is on the lower floor will be the most up-to-date playhouse in Ohio county.

Rev. W. D. Cox, who recently closed his revival meeting here, is now holding a revival meeting at Williams Mines and is having splendid results. Several from Rockport were in attendance Sunday and several during the week. Rev. Cox has received a call from above Hartford and will probably hold a revival there.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Morgan, of Greenville, are the guests of Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Waddle and son, Master Percy Thomas, have returned from a visit to Rumsy and other points.

Miss Ada Hendric has returned from Louisville.

Mrs. D. G. Young, of Beaver Dam, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Hines here this week.

Mrs. G. E. Bartlett has returned from a visit to Hickman.

Mrs. A. E. Kevil, of Russellville, was the guest of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Kate Robertson, of Franklin, is the guest of relatives here.

Several from here are in Greenville this week at the pains fireworks exhibition.

The Premium list of the Ohio County Fair has been doubled this year. This means something.

BUFFORD.

September 7.—Mr. S. J. Hussey is out on his crutches. He is getting along nicely and will soon be able to work again.

The debating society was quite a success Saturday night.

A large crowd from here attended the association at Bell's Run last week.

Mr. Herbert Cox, son of Mrs. Fannie Cox, of this place, died at Curds-ville Saturday, August 27 and was buried here Sunday. Funeral services conducted by Bro. Burnett which was a fine discourse. Herbert had friends wherever he was known. He leaves a wife, mother, three brothers and a sister to mourn his loss.

Miss Eugenie Howard returned home last Thursday, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Abbie Blair.

Mr. Wilbur Stevens, of Livermore, visited Mr. John Blair and family August 27-28.

Rev. Frank Newton, of Livermore, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Ben Newton and Mrs. Dollie Pate, attended the funeral of Mrs. Reuben Bennett at Mt. Herman Tuesday.

Mrs. Kelly, of Bella Run, mother of Mrs. Ira Taylor, is visiting here at this time.

FREE FOR ALL

Was the Fight at a Hancock County Picnic Saturday.

Blood Flowed Freely and Deeds of Violence and Valor Were Many.

A picnic given three miles this side of Hawesville last Saturday afternoon ended with a free-for-all fight. The brawl started over a very trivial matter between a farmer by the name of Beard and a man whose name cannot be learned. The men agreed to settle the matter and retired to the road, where they had a rough and tumble fight. After this they mixed with the crowd and nothing more was done until two vehicles collided in the road and the occupants began quarreling. It is said, that Beard was drunk and started to mix into the quarrel, which was growing very hot. He rushed at Williams, the driver of one of the wagons, with a beer bottle, but was knocked down by a man by the name of Watson from Lewisport. The weapon used being a huge mallet. Beard was unconscious for several hours and it is feared that he will not recover. After Watson had knocked the man in the head he walked on down the road, but was overtaken and himself hit in the head with the same instrument. His ear was nearly torn off and a great gash was cut in his head. He too, was rendered unconscious by the blow. After this the fighting became general among the crowd and knives and other weapons were used, several being cut.

It appears that whisky was the cause of the disgraceful proceedings.

CLERK BOARD OF HEALTH

Of Jacksonville, Fla., Endorses Pe-ru-na.

C. D. TAYLOR.

C. D. Taylor, Clerk of the City Board of Health of Jacksonville, Fla., has occupied that position for the last ten years. In a recent letter to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., he expresses his approval of their famous catarrh remedy Peruna in the following words:

"The health of the poor of a large city is always a question of vital interest not only to the city officials but to every citizen. It has been a source of much satisfaction to me to find that so large a number of working people in moderate circumstances have accepted Peruna as their family medicine. It has cured a large number of cases especially of catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach and building up the general health it cannot fail but prove a help and blessing to any community where it is generally adopted and used. I have found it an honest reliable remedy and am pleased to endorse it."—C. D. Taylor, Clerk, Board of Health.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

STRIKING PASSAGES

From Tom Watson's Speech Accepting the Populist Nomination for President.

Tom Watson, who was a candidate for the Vice Presidency in 1899 with W. J. Bryan, in his speech accepting the Populist nomination, says:

"I have no words of abuse for Theodore Roosevelt. I believe him to be a brave, honest, conscientious man. I give him full credit for having a splendid courage of conviction."

"How is it with the Democratic party? Our political history has never seen a situation so ludicrous as that which the national Democracy now holds. I can understand how the citizen can work for the Republican party and vote its ticket with enthusiastic zeal. If the Republican party represents his ideals of Government, then he is justly proud of it, can justly confide in it, for it has stood by its principles through storm as well as sunshine, and no matter how bad you and I may think its creed is, we are bound to admit that the Republican party has a creed, is willing to fight for it, is willing to cling to it in defeat and continue to struggle for it until victory comes again. But why any human being should in the year 1904, vote the national Democratic ticket is something that passes my untutored comprehension."

"I can understand why the citizen could vote a local Democratic ticket; I can understand how in some cities and in some States that party may be struggling to do some distinct thing which he believes ought to be done; but in the name of common sense tell me why any sane and sober citizen should in this campaign vote the national Democratic ticket."

"What principle of Democracy does it stand for? What does it propose to do for the people different from what the Republicans are doing? To what point is it directing its line of march except to the Republican camp? Surrounded by the Wall Street magnates who had financed his campaign for two years, Judge Parker bided his time till the perils of the two-thirds rule were passed; and when it was too late for the convention to retrace its steps—for even the Democratic bosses require more than fifteen minutes to turn completely round—he cracks the Wall Street whip over the heads of his leaders, and with prompt obedience the great Democratic legions were made to hurl their flags and reverse their line of march."

"The mass of the Democratic party feel outraged at the way in which their leaders have sold them to Wall Street. I do not believe that the six and a half million men who followed Bryan, with cheers on their lips and warm convictions in their hearts, can now be delivered like cattle to the Clevelandites who knifed the ticket and bolted it in 1896. I believe that the great majority of men who voted for Bryan are men of conviction; I cannot hope they will realize that I am fighting their battles now."

"Call upon the six and a half million voters whose political faith was crystallized in the Chicago platform of 1896 and of the Kansas City platform of 1900, and I ask, What is there in the Democratic platform of 1904 that bids YOU hope? What is there for YOU in the platform? What do YOU get out of it? To what extent does Parker represent YOU? What is it that he proposes to do for YOU? If you believe in Republican doctrines why vote for Parker? Why not go the whole hog or none? And vote for Roosevelt? By what right do the Democratic leaders undertake to preach and expound to the American people any economic questions? How do we know that they have mastered any of those questions?"

"Never in the world could it emphasize itself on any issue as it did on the money question from 1896 to the year 1900. If all the writings and all of the speeches which they made against the Republican party on the money question were put into printed form and loaded for transportation upon the backs of camels, the caravan would stretch from one end of the other of the great Sahara desert. Did they understand the money question? If not, how do we know that they understand the money question? In their campaign book of 1896 the Democratic leaders say: 'We are resolutely opposed to monometal-the history of the past eight years? Do they imagine for a moment that when they stand in the attitude of confessing so colossal a blunder as they made upon the money question they are going to be trusted on any other question? I again ask, did they know what they were talking about during those eight years, or were they simply deceiving the American people."

"The campaign has hardly been opened before the standard bearer of Democracy commences his retreat. Therefore, the great tariff question may be considered as 'waived,' just as the great money question is 'waived.'"

"Let us see what else the national Democratic party presents as an issue. In their platform they declare that further legislation is needed against the trusts. But their candid date, in his speech of acceptance, says that we have as much law as we need."

"And as further proof that the Democratic platform will never cause any loss of sleep to the Havemeyers, the Rockefeller, you have only to remember that in 1892 they denounced the trusts and protective tariff in language equally as strong as that used in the platform of 1904; and when we construe the meaning of the platform of '92 in the light of the admitted infamies of Cleveland's second administration, with its well-remembered surrender to the Sugar Trust, the patriotic citizen might heartily exclaim, 'God deliver us from another redemption of Democratic pledges on the subject of the tariff and trusts.'"

"Let us presume that Judge Parker, against whose character I would not venture to say a word, for I believe him to be an eminently worthy man—let us presume, I say, that Judge Parker, as the champion and representative of the great Democratic party, has the courage of his convictions. If we do presume this, his failure to state wherein he would make any change in the policy which the Republicans are pursuing in the Philippines is the most significant bit of silence in all of the various and interesting bits of silence to be found in Judge Parker's remarkable speech of acceptance."

"Are the two platforms almost identical? Certainly they are. Bolled down to its real essence, sifted to its real meaning, the Democratic campaign of 1904 is a mere unscrupulous hunt for office. They have no fixed and certain creed. They have no articles of faith by which Democratic loyalty can be tested. A party, like an individual, should seek to build up character. And without convictions there can be no character."

"Stealing the platform of the people's party in 1896; stealing that of the Republicans in 1904, how can Democratic leaders now pretend to lead a party based upon convictions? 'I cannot see in the management of the National Democratic party anything on earth except an effort to find out which is the best bait to put on the hook. It is merely a question of catching a voter, and winning the office.'"

"You may ask why do I consume more time discussing the Democrats than in speaking of the Republicans. My reply is: It's an easier and quicker job to strike an open enemy right between the eyes than it is to tear off the mask from the face of a pretended friend and show him to be the hypocrite that he is."

A Jealous Ape.

Sir Henry Johnson, the English explorer, once traveled on a ship with a pet ape. It was a great favorite with all the passengers until there came aboard at Madeira a lady with an infant. The latter received a good deal of attention and the ape in consequence became neglected and jealous. Sir Henry Johnson followed it on deck one day just in time to prevent a tragedy. The child had been left unguarded for a moment in its cradle. The ape had made for it, pulled it from the cradle and was in the act of throwing it overboard when the traveler pounced upon it. Says Sir Henry, 'It would certainly have hauled it into the sea had not my arrival caused the guilty ape to drop the child on the deck and scramble away.' The ape was relegated to a strong iron cage for the rest of that voyage."

Only did his Duty as he Saw it.

I deem it a duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park the well known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not do without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it cures the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you pleased." Sold by all druggists.

The First Will Ever Written.

The father of all the wills and the most ancient document of its kind known to the historians and antiquarians is that of "the great king," Sennacherib, who is frequently mentioned in the Scriptures and also by Herodotus and Josephus. Sennacherib lived and reigned between the years 722 and 686 B. C., over 2,500 years ago. In the will, which is written upon a tablet of clay, and which was found by the excavators which were exploring the site of the royal palace, the "great invincible" wills his sons "certain stores of precious things" at that time deposited in the temple of Nebo. These same sons afterward killed their father "while he was engaged in worshipping his private god."

On arriving at the dreaded spot I dismounted expecting to find that a rattlesnake had been the cause of alarm. Instead of finding a serpent, there in a little tuft of grass sat a harmless plover covering her nest, while her wings were kept in constant and violent motion. Seen indistinctly through the grass, she had evidently been mistaken by the steer for a rattlesnake."

Colic, Cholera and Di-

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind. For sale by all druggists."

The Fan in Egypt.

In Egypt the fan was not only an emblem of royalty, but also of happiness and heavenly rest. The oldest Egyptian fan now extant is preserved in the museum of Bulak and is said to have belonged to the Queen Aah-Hotep and is consequently nearly thirty-five centuries old. The crown and wooden handle of this curiosity are covered with thin plates of gold, and all around the former at equal intervals are small holes, in which the nodding ostrich plumes were once inserted.

A long handled screen fan is represented in the triumph of King Hoins (1400 B. C.), and the wall paintings at Medinah Habon show that Rameses was attended by twenty-three princesses, each bearing an elegant screen fan and rejoicing in the sounding title of 'fan bearer on the left hand of the king.' Fans were also used in Egypt for religious ceremonies, for Isis priests held long handled fans made of the wings of a bird and somewhat resembling the Greek caduceus. From Egypt and the far east fans soon found their way into Greece, where the first specimens assumed the shape of fania, papyrus or lotus leaves, but in later years the ladies showed a marked preference for gorgeous peacock feather fans."

"Why was that law which forbade a man to kiss his wife on Sunday ever repealed?"

"It was found not to be necessary."

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, putting it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kaule, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."

Beautiful Stationery.

For Business.

Good Stationery is a power in business. Business Stationery should be the best—not merely for pride's sake but for the real worth it is to your business.

Our stationery, we think, is not equaled by but few printers, because that which goes to make beautiful stationery is employed in our print-shop. Every detail of its making is attended to with the greatest care: the paper, ink, presswork and all are just what they should be. Favor us with an order so we can prove the above or call and let us show you samples.

For Society.

Society Stationery is given the greatest care in our print-shop. The type faces we have for this class of work were selected with the utmost care as to beauty and style—for instance we have a series of type for calling cards that, when printed like we print, is so much like engraved work that it can hardly be detected from the real. It is the same with wedding invitations and the like.

Our prices for this kind of work are moderate, considering the excellent, high-grade work you get.

STILL A SECRET.

What the Sage of Esopus Really Believes Remains a Mystery.

What Judge Parker would do or attempt to do if he were to be elected President, is little less an unknown quantity than it was before his speech of acceptance was given to the world. He would recognize the gold standard and he repeats that he would regard it as "firmly and irrevocably established," but this was known before he added the second word. He thinks he would like to have a reduction of the tariff, but he is not sufficiently sure of this to intimate what degree of reduction he would have upon any one item on which he would have the tariff duty changed in any way.

And the few explicit statements he does make emphasize the wisdom he manifests in what he falls to say. When he redeclares his belief that the gold standard is "firmly and irrevocably established" for instance, he shows that he is ignorant of a fact that exists in the mind of most voters at this stage and proceedings. Almost everybody else by this knows that the gold standard lacks a good deal of being irrevocably established, and even he would probably be convinced of it if once he were called upon to deal with it.

So also he suggests that he would fix a time to haul down the flag in the Philippines, but he gives no hint of the year or the month or the time of day. On most things that he touched he leaves the reader to infer almost anything that he would like to infer, especially if the reader is seeking an excuse for a vote against the administration, but explicit statements in his speech of acceptance are almost as rare as in the silence that has prevailed for so long at Esopus.

In another explicit statement that he makes he shows his wisdom in avoiding such things as much as possible. For instance, he says that the tariff furnishes the trusts a market in the necessities of eighty million people, "practically excluding competition." On the same day that this speech was delivered came the announcement that an independent concern had taken away from the trust an order for 1,000 tons of steel plates.

The record shows that while what is known as the steel trust began business with the control of about eighty per cent. of the total output in two years this had been reduced to fifty per cent. or less, due solely to competition here at home under this same protective tariff. The steel trust undertook to do business on the assumption expressed by this Presidential candidate the competition soon forced it to reorganize and pursue its business on the assumption that it would have the liveliest sort—and even ruinous—the competition if it attempted to maintain extortionate prices. About two years ago the prize trust had the same experience. On window glass the duty always has been high. It is so now; it was so under the Wilson-Gorman bill and under the McKinley law and so on. Yet the combination known as the window glass trust has not been free from competition for years, and this competition has been of the keenest sort. Trust after trust has failed because it attempted to do business on an assumption similar to that of the offered as statemanship from this man at Esopus. Every one of them that has attempted this has failed or been forced into the courts for reorganization on a different basis. If this man is fit to be a candidate for anything he knows this. Even casual attention to what has been going on in the courts of the land would have revealed this vital fact.

The Stomach is the Man.

A weak stomach weakens the man, because it cannot transform the food he eats into nourishment. Health and strength cannot be restored to any sick man or weak woman without first restoring health and strength to the stomach. A weak stomach cannot digest enough food to feed the tissues and revive the tired and run down limbs and organs of the body. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cleanses and strengthens the glands and membranes of the stomach and cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Big Enterprises Cost Money.

Senator Davis, taking his cue from the New York World and other Democratic papers, made the attempt to show that the administration of President Roosevelt had been extravagant in the extreme and that our expenditures per capita were greater than at any previous period. It is true that Mr. Davis did present a table showing that our present per capita expenditures are greater than at certain previous years which he used in comparison. It would be very easy, however, to select other years, and many of them, too, in which our per capita expenditures largely exceeded those of the past year under President Roosevelt. It must be remembered, however, that the Executive does not make the appropriations. They are made by Congress, and the Executive has no alternative but to carry out the laws as enacted, whether they be extravagant or otherwise. The fact is, however, that all things considered, our present expenditures are exceedingly moderate.

Without discussing the question of imperialism, we have on our hands the Philippines, which must be guarded and protected at whatever cost. We rank among the foremost nations of the earth, and every loyal patriot is desirous that our navy should be of such proportions as to carry with it peace, because we are prepared for war.

The inauguration of the Panama Canal, towards which we have already appropriated fifty millions of dollars, is another expenditure that no loyal American regrets. Our rural free delivery service, for which the last year we appropriated over twenty millions of dollars, is another additional expense not known to previous administrations.

Large responsibilities carry with them large expenditures, but it may be added that the American people are not being taxed to-day at any greater rate per capita than has been the case for many years and during many decades of our previous history.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quantity too rich sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of early digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by all druggists.

Needed an Examination.

Representative Bourke Cockran was seated in law office one day recently when one of the clerks announced a visitor. The orator was very busy, but the man refused to tell his business to a clerk, insisted that it was a personal matter and he must see Mr. Cockran himself.

"Well, show him in," said the lawyer finally in disgust.

"I want to get some legal advice, Mr. Cockran," said the visitor, "and I came to you because I am a poor man and cannot afford to pay a real lawyer."

"What do you mean?" thundered the Representative indignantly.

"Well, I mean that as a politician you will not be hard on one of your constituent. Besides, I have another claim on you. My aunt does washing for one of your cousins."

"My dear sir," said the lawyer in his most withering tones as he ushered the visitor out, "you don't want to see a lawyer. You want to see a nerve specialist."

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Force of Habit.

Speaking of force of habit, some years ago there was an iron railing around the capitol grounds at Washington. The appropriation bill provided for a watchman to close and lock the gates every night at a certain hour and open them at a certain hour every morning. In the course of time the railing or fence was removed but the gates swung between their Egyptian pillars for a long time, and all that time the watchman came and went regularly, closing and opening the gates according to law and drawing his salary.

When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by all druggists.

The Love of Eating.

In our largest centers of population, such as New York and Chicago, we daily see more attention given to the inner man. Cafes and lunch-rooms are filled with men and women who seem to give all their time and attention to thoughts of properly or improperly feeding their stomachs. "It is of course best to eat slowly, but not too much," says Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. In this 20th century people devote so much time to head work that their brain is fatigued and there isn't sufficient blood left to properly take care of the other organs of the body. The stomach must be assisted in its hard work—the liver started into action—by the use of a good stomach tonic, which should be entirely of vegetable ingredients and without alcohol. After years of experience in an active practice, Dr. Pierce discovered a remedy that suited these conditions in a blood-maker and tissue-builder. He called it Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—an alternative extract that assists in the digestion and assimilation of the food in the stomach—so that the blood gets what it needs for food and oxidation, the liver is at the same time started into activity and there is perfect elimination of waste matter. When the blood is pure and rich, all the organs work without effort, and the body is like a perfect machine. FREE—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. A woman who probably knows says it is far more satisfactory to wait for a husband before marriage than it is afterward.

Compression of the waste may be harmful, but if the right young man attempts it, no girl is willing to take chances.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for Coughs Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by Z. Wayne Griffin and Bro., Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

College Girl's Fad.

Of course every college girl uses her college seal and her society emblems as belt buckles, cuff links, shirtwaist studs and scarf pins, but it has remained for the 1924 college girl to originate the idea of decorating her bathing suit with college buttons. The buttons are enamel and it is not at all necessary that she use entirely buttons emblematic of her own college, for, being a college girl, it goes without saying that for reasons all her own she may wear the Yale or Harvard button.

Sweet Milk.

Sweet milk that is over twenty-four hours old is not fit for food. Until the milk passes through fermentation, and forms what is known as butter milk, or sour whey, old milk is real unfit for food. The practice of delivering milk in the cities at such times as that the consumer of the milk shall not use it until it is twenty-four hours old, is a very bad practice, and is undoubtedly the cause of much of the sickness during the hot months.

Milk should be used the same day it is milked from the cow. The sooner the better. Just as quickly as the animal heat is taken out of it, by proper stirring and cooling, is the time when it is the most palatable and nutritious. Those who like milk warm from the cow, and can obtain it in that state, should use it in preference to any other. But milk used for ordinary purposes had better be cooled and aerated, if possible, and used the same day it is taken from the cow.

Even though the milk is kept from souring, after it is more than twenty-four hours old it is unfit for food, and should never be used, especially as food for infants.

WE DON'T hear much said about free silver now.

THE Democratic party now admits that its free silver craze of recent years was only a catch phrase used as a vote getter.

RUSSIA made a solemn pledge to evacuate Manchuria on September 8, 1903, and now she is being soundly whipped for lying about it.

TOM TAGGART as the chauffeur of the Democratic locomobile has good reason to complain of the gravel thrown into his eyes by the wheels of his own machine.

VERMONT has again fallen in line by giving an increased Republican majority. Charles J. Bell was elected Governor over his Democratic opponent by a plurality of 32,000 votes.

News has reached Che Fo by a Chinese junk that Arkansas has gone Democratic, and that one J. Davis will have dominion over the frogs and mosquitoes down in the land of swamps and bogs for two years more.

FOR practical results of the "tariff for revenue only" policy of Democracy note Grover Cleveland's last term. The country was provided with free trade, free soup and free financial disasters of all kinds. Parker and the Hartford Herald favor the same policy now.

KENTUCKY free silverites cannot exactly locate themselves. Not even Governor Beckham nor Ollie James has made a footprint on the soil of Esopus where the home of Candidate Parker is. It is reported that free silver produces an offensive odor to the Rosemount candidate.

IT WAS not uncommon during Bryan's first campaign to hear leading Democrats say that a protective tariff was the right policy of government. Now they call it the robber tariff. They have proven themselves to be almost as consistent about the tariff as about the money question.

THE man who followed Bryan through two campaigns believing in his views on the financial question, and is now following Parker, and by so doing endorsing his views on the financial question who could be persuaded to pull off his shoes and stockings, and wade over Niagara Falls.

THERE seems to be a great dearth of the "16 to 1 or bust" editorials in the Democratic newspapers over the country. Will some one of these papers, which, eight and four years ago, predicted that the country would fall in a great heap of chaotic desolation unless it debased its currency, kindly inform a waiting public why this change in sentiment has come about?

IN 1896 and 1900 Democrats were positive that the thing the country needed was free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. Time has proven the fallacy of such a craze. Now they take up their time-ridden doctrine "of tariff for revenue only" which has been banded down to them from remote ancestry and advance it as the savior of mankind. We were favored with "tariff for revenue only" and free soup during Cleveland's last administration. A return to such conditions is the inevitable result if Democrats are again given the control of the government.

GUESSES, PROMISES AND FACTS.

IT is one of the necessary conditions of a government by political parties that the minority must appeal for support on the strength of the promises they make as to their course in the event that they are endorsed at the polls. The Democrats have had no opportunity, since soup-house Cleveland's term, to assume responsibility for important legislation, and they come before the people asking to be given power—but on what grounds? Promises? No. They made promises and prophecies in 1896 and 1900 with what results we are all familiar. Whatever may be the convictions of the leaders, they are studiously concealed. Neither the platform nor Parker's speech of acceptance has outlined any definite policy or made specific promises.

THE St. Louis convention started a great guessing contest. No man can affirm where Democracy stands on any of the great questions now before the people for solution. They are not free traders, and yet they compare the tariff to a burglar's kit. If they are accused of endorsing the gold standard they clamor vociferously but say nothing. They vituperate President Roosevelt for clearing the way for the construction of the Panama Canal, yet they say it should be built. Where are they anyhow? The only certain, positive and fixed feature of the situation is that they are out of office and would be all things to all men in order to get in. They forget that the road to confidence and preferment is a strait and narrow path, and a clear cut proposition that engages the attention of the thoughtful voter.

The Renewal a Strain.

VACATION is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kinds of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago has roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

L. Berry Loney.

IN another column will be found the announcement of L. Berry Loney for assessor of Ohio county. Mr. Loney is one of the county's best citizens and a life-long Republican and if nominated by the party, he will certainly win in the final election.

Everett P. Taylor.

WE announce to-day the candidacy of Everett P. Taylor for the office of Clerk of the Ohio County Court subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Taylor is a substantial business man of Beaver Dam, a good citizen and enthusiastic life-long Republican and if nominated by his party as its standard bearer he will make an aggressive and winning campaign.

G. Davis Royal.

WITH this issue we announce G. Davis Royal as a candidate for the Republican nomination for county court clerk. Mr. Royal is an enthusiastic and consistent Republican, and, above all, a polite and courteous gentleman. He served as county assessor for four years, and, notwithstanding the fact that he was one of the youngest in the State, he was an able and efficient officer. He has many claims on the Ohio county Republicans for their support, and, if chosen in November for their standard bearer, he would make a good candidate and a model clerk.

E. M. Woodward.

BY reference to the announcement column of THE REPUBLICAN you will note that E. M. Woodward is asking the nomination for County Attorney at the hands of Ohio county Republicans. The position to which Mr. Woodward aspires requires the services of a skillful and efficient lawyer, one of standing and ability, all of which he has, by persistent effort supplemented by years of experience, attained. Mr. Woodward is an enthusiastic Republican and possesses rare social attainments. If nominated he will add strength to the ticket and in the final election will win.

W. S. Tinsley.

EVERYWHERE in this issue will be found the announcement of W. S. Tinsley for the nomination for clerk of the Ohio county court. Mr. Tinsley was born and reared on a farm near Beda where he has resided most of his life. He served as deputy sheriff for one term and was universally esteemed as a polite and obliging official. He is an ardent and trusted Republican worthy of the confidence and consideration of his party. He comes from rugged and honest lineage and is a worthy son of an honored sire. If nominated he would add the ticket materially, and make an excellent official.

R. B. Martin.

IN the announcement column of THE REPUBLICAN will be found the name of Mr. R. B. Martin who is asking the nomination for sheriff of Ohio county at the hands of the Republican party. Mr. Martin is one of our best Republicans and has for years been a faithful and efficient worker in the party ranks. He was defeated for the nomination for sheriff in 1897 by former sheriff, S. T. Stevens. He accepted his defeat in a manly way and it was on his motion that the convention made Mr. Stevens' nomination unanimous. If nominated Mr. Martin will make an aggressive candidate and win in the final election.

Do the Best Thing.

[Great Falls (Mont.) "Leader."]
Every man wants to do the best he may for his country. Do you think it best for your country at this time to try an experiment that has failed in Great Britain, that has been discarded by nearly all the great European powers and that proved such a dismal failure when practiced, even to a small extent, by the United States?

It is for you to decide now. If you make a mistake you will have to bear the burden, you will have to shoulder the responsibility. You are certain that under the policy inaugurated by the Republican party the country has prospered, but you are doubtful what fare the inauguration of Democratic policies might bring you.

It is your duty, therefore, to let well enough alone, to refuse to try experiments and such theories unless it is plainly shown to you that such experiments and such theories are more likely to result in benefits now than they were when tried before?

The Republican party points to success. The Democratic party can only point to a succession of failures. Which party will you ally yourself with?

A Roosevelt Song.

Scores of poems set to familiar airs drift into the Republican national and state headquarters these days. Recently the mail brought a verse which the writer says should be sung to "Hail Columbia." It is as follows: R—aise your banners, hail the chief O—f our country, great and glorious; O—f our party, long victorious; S—trenuous always—pressing on ward E—ven watchful—looking forward. V—ote for him who is truly leading, E—arrestingly all good causes pleading. L—et our nation come to grief, T—rust in him—our faithful chief.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.

First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep; third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibres, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.

To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nervine. Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Fretfulness, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.

They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity. Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"My husband had been sick for weeks, could not sit up to have his bed made. With all the medical help we could get he continued to grow worse. He could neither sleep or eat. Our baby girl was sent away, and all eilers barred, because he could not stand a bit of talking. I read of a case of nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. We began giving it to him, and in a few days he was able to be dressed. From that time he steadily improved. Now he enjoys his life."
